Travel Warning - Southern Thailand

There are almost daily terrorist attacks in the far south including arson, bombings and shootings. Targets have included civilians and members of the security forces, government offices, tourist hotels, discotheques and bars, shops, marketplaces, supermarkets, schools, transport infrastructure and trains. Since 2004, over 3,500 people have been killed and several thousand more injured. Martial law remains in place in the provinces of Pattani, Yala, Narathiwat and in the Sadao district of Songkhla province. Security authorities can detain suspects without charge, censor the media, conduct searches and seize documents. The British Foreign Office and the United States Department of State recommend only essential travel should be made between Hat Yai Junction and Sungai Kolok. This does not affect travel via Padang Besar.

The State Railway of Thailand offers train booking via their e-SRT internet site (<http://www.thairailticket.com>). Tickets may be purchased for all classes of travel from 2 hours to 60 days prior to train departure. The internet site is available in Thai and English languages and operates continuously (24 hours each day). Registration is not required to check train schedules, fares or seat availability. Special Express, Express and Rapid trains are available for on line booking in all class accommodations. There are no Eastern Line trains available on e-SRT.

Registration is free and is required to reserve seats and make payments. The registration process requires Thai citizens to enter their National Identification Number or passport number; citizens of other countries must provide their passport number. All tickets purchased using e-SRT must be paid for at the time of purchase using Mastercard, Visa or Bangkok Bank (BBL) debit card via the internet. The system allows booking four seats or sleeping car berths per transaction. The SRT imposes a 20 Baht booking fee per transaction and a 3% surcharge of the total amount for credit card purchases. When transaction is complete ticket(s) will be displayed as PDF file for downloading and printing.

Booking to stations in Laos and Malaysia are not available via internet. The SRT does not make all seats available for internet booking and if e-SRT shows no seats available, there may be seats available for booking at railway stations or through the 24 hour call center (1690).
